

59th ANNUAL CALL FOR DESIGN AWARD ENTRIES (page 1-3) and PROFESSIONAL AWARD NOMINATIONS (page 4-6)

2021 marks the 59th Annual Design Awards of the North Dakota Chapter of the American Institute of Architects. During the Fall Design Conference, October 4-6, 2021, all awards will be presented for distinguished accomplishments in design as well as the professional awards. This document contains all information on the 2021 awards, including the Design Award and the Professional Award nominations. This electronic document is the only notification for entries and nominations that will be sent to members. This document will also be posted on the AIA North Dakota Website.

DESIGN AWARD ENTRIES:

The design awards are divided into two categories

- General Design Awards
- Residential Design Awards

Overall Eligibility and Submittal Requirements for Design Awards

Eligibility:

Projects must be submitted by a Member of AIA North Dakota who has been in good standing for at least 2 consecutive years immediately prior to this year and who is also a principal of the firm entering the submission. Eligible projects will have been completed since June 1, 2018. Projects done in collaboration with non AIA North Dakota members, where the non-member is the primary designer, are not eligible. Only those entries that follow the format and meet the deadlines will be considered. Previous winning projects are not eligible.

Submittal Requirements for General Design and Residential Design Awards: Please read the instructions carefully as we occasionally make modifications to streamline or clarify the process. If you chose to participate in this year's award program, further information and submissions specifications will be emailed to you.

1. Entries must consist of one building or a related group of buildings forming a single project.
2. The hardcopy portion for each submittal must be snail-mailed to the P.O. Box: two different 8 X 10 color photos (your choice) of the project.

The electronic portion of each submittal must be sent to AIA North Dakota through a file sharing service of your choosing. If you do not have access to a file sharing service, please contact Stacy to request a formatted stick drive. Provide the following:

- Each submittal must contain a site plan(s) and floor plan(s) as necessary to convey the design intent to the jury. Insert images within the Power Point provided to you via email.
 - Provide a minimum of 5, maximum of 8 JPG images of the building and site, to include a minimum of two exterior and two interior images. Only one image per slide view. (Exception: one slide may contain 2 images if demonstrating before and after.)
 - Insert images within the format provided. You may substitute section(s) and/or perspective(s) in lieu of additional photos. The total number of slides may not exceed 13.
 - Images may not exceed 1024 x 768-pixel resolution and 96 dots per inch.
 - Insert Descriptive Data slides as indicated in the PowerPoint located on slides #2 and #3.
 - Insert optional Narrative slide as indicated in the PowerPoint located on slide #4
 - Please delete the slide containing the instructions (slide #1) before submitting.
3. Completed Digital Photo Identification Sheets (furnished after receipt of entry fee) must also accompany each submission. Provide the information requested on the Identification Sheets, keying the numbers on the form to the numbers you assign each digital image.
 4. Please submit the following information on the Project Information Sheet (this will also be emailed to you):
 - Name of Owner
 - Name and Location of Project
 - Name and address of Lead Architect (must be the same as provided on the Entry Form)
 - Name of Consulting Engineer(s)
 - Name of Landscape Architect

- Name of General Contractor
 - Name of Photographer
 - Name as you would like it to appear on your award
5. It is essential that drawings and images are not restricted against publication in connection with the Design Awards and any publicity thereafter. It is the entrant's responsibility to make sure that all drawings and images are cleared for release by the Chapter, which will assume no responsibility for copyrights or image fees. The designated image of each entry will be for unrestricted use in AIA North Dakota website and magazine. The images' credit lines will be given when requested.
 6. Keep in mind that projects will not be judged in competition with other entries, but on the basis of the entrant's solution to the problem and its worthiness for an Award of Excellence in Architecture.
 7. REQUIRED FOAM CORE BOARD: While not part of the actual judging, these boards are an important highlight of the Design Conference. Each entry must also be represented by one 24"X30" white, vertically oriented foam core and descriptive information. Each board must be delivered to the AIA North Dakota conference registration desk at the Holiday Inn Fargo between 10:00am and noon on Monday, October 4, 2021. The Chapter is not responsible for delivery arrangements.

The front of each board must include:

- Project name and location.
- Project description. Must include one or more of the following: program statement; solution statement; square footage and total project cost.
- Architect/firm name and/or corporate logo, and owner's name and/or corporate logo.
- Credits, if desired.
- Plans, sections, exterior and interior images as necessary to adequately describe the project is at the discretion of the entrant.

Adjudication and Awards Presentation

1. The jury will select one Honor Award for Distinguished Accomplishment in Architecture. The jury will also designate Awards of Merit for those projects considered having a degree of excellence but not warranting the Honor Award.
2. Award winners will be notified prior to the Fall Conference with adequate time to permit winning entrants to invite project owners and consultants/contractors to the Awards Event. AIA North Dakota does not cover the cost of winners or their guests to attend the luncheon.
3. At the Awards Event, two identical award certificates will be presented for each winning project (one each to the Architects and Owners) receiving the Honor Award, Awards of Merit and Juror's Choice.
4. All submittals' foam core boards will be displayed at the Expo and winning submittals' foam core boards will be displayed at the Awards Event. Boards for winning projects become the property of AIA North Dakota and may be used for future AIA promotional exhibits. Boards for non-winners must be claimed by submitters immediately following the Expo at the conclusion of the box lunch on Tuesday or an alternate time that may be determined. Any boards not removed by the date/time indicated will be recycled.

Professional Award Nomination Deadline: July 16, 2021

Winners will be notified prior to the Fall Design Conference and all winners will be acknowledged at the Awards Event (date and time TBD).

2021 Test of Time Award Nomination

Eligibility: The nominated project must be located in North Dakota and completed a minimum of 25 years ago. Preference will be given to buildings designed by an AIA North Dakota member. Preference will also be given to projects located in the city where the Design Conference is being held.

Qualifications: This award acknowledges the significant contribution of timeless design to our communities and state. These qualifications are fairly open-ended to allow for the distinctive design, cultural/iconic nature or a community's reverence for a project over time.

Submission Requirements: An AIA North Dakota member who has been in good standing for at least 2 consecutive years immediately prior to this year must be the primary nominator but more than one additional nomination by individual members or non-members is acceptable. To be considered, the original nomination email must include the project's name/ location and have 2 attachments: 1) a one-page narrative (maximum) as a Microsoft Word document with 1-inch margins on all sides, written in a font no smaller than 11 pt. type and, 2) one photo of the project in JPG format. If selected, the nominator agrees to provide additional JPG images and text for presentation purposes as requested by September 1.

2021 Architect Outstanding Achievement Award Nomination

Eligibility: An architect who is an AIA North Dakota member in good standing and is/was licensed in North Dakota and practiced the majority of their career in North Dakota. (The nominee may have allowed their license to expire due to retirement or similar circumstance). Posthumous nominations are accepted.

Qualifications: This award acknowledges the achievements of the member architect as an individual and elevates before the public and the profession a model architect who has made significant career-long contributions to architecture, the Chapter, and society.

This individual has shown excellence in leading the AIA North Dakota Chapter or a related professional organization over a sustained period of time and have gained recognition for the results of their work as well as one or more of these categories:

- Produced distinguished bodies of work through design, urban design, or preservation
- Made notable contributions through their work in education, research, literature or the practice of architecture.
- Made notable contributions in public service or work in government or industry organizations
- Made notable contributions to the public good through alternative careers or volunteer work with organizations not directly connected to the built environment.

Submission Requirements: To submit nomination, the primary nominator must be an AIA North Dakota Member who has been in good standing for at least 2 consecutive years immediately prior to this year but more than one additional nomination by individual members or non-members is acceptable. To be considered, the original nomination email must have 2 attachments: 1) a one-page narrative (maximum) as a Microsoft Word document with 1-inch margins on all sides, written in a font no smaller than 11 pt. type and, 2) one "head and shoulders" professional photo in JPG format. If selected, the nominator agrees to provide additional JPG images and text for presentation purposes as requested by September 1.

Narrative:

Nominee's Name, Address & Phone Number;

Brief Biography: Briefly state why this individual deserves this award. List any professional, Chapter, or personal involvement with the profession and the community.

2021 Commitment to Architecture Award Nomination

Eligibility: An individual or organization that is not an architect or a member of AIA. The individual may be an AIA allied member.

Qualifications: This award acknowledges the continued commitment to architectural excellence by an individual or organization not directly related to the Architectural Profession:

Commentary: These qualifications are fairly open-ended to allow for the unique service an individual or organization can provide for our profession. For example, a city leader might have attended an urban design conference which led to community-wide changes, or a historical society has shown great strides in pursuing appropriate downtown renovation.

Submission Requirements: To submit nomination, nominator must be an AIA North Dakota Member who has been in good standing for at least 2 consecutive years immediately prior to this year. To be considered, the original nomination email must have 2 attachments: 1) a one-page narrative (maximum) as a Microsoft Word document with 1-inch margins on all sides, written in a font no smaller than 11 pt. type and, 2) one "head and shoulders" professional photo in JPG format. If selected, the nominator agrees to provide additional JPG images and text for presentation purposes as requested by September 1.

Narrative: Provide a brief statement why this individual or organization deserves this award. List any professional or personal involvement with the profession and the community that would help in the selection process.

2021 Craftsmanship Award Nomination

Eligibility: An individual or organization that is not an architect or a member of AIA. They may be an AIA allied member.

Qualifications: This award acknowledges the continued commitment to excellence in craftsmanship by an individual or organization whose work or trade contributes to the built environment:

Submission Requirements: To submit nomination, the primary nominator must be an AIA North Dakota Member who has been in good standing for at least 2 consecutive years immediately prior to this year but more than one additional nomination by individual members or non-members is acceptable. To be considered, the original nomination email must include the Nominee's Name, Address & Phone Number and have 2 attachments: 1) a one-page narrative (maximum) as a Microsoft Word document with 1-inch margins on all sides, written in a font no smaller than 11 pt. type and, 2) one "head and shoulders" professional photo in JPG format. If selected, the nominator agrees to provide additional JPG images and text for presentation purposes as requested by September 1.

2021 Early Career Architect Award Nomination

Eligibility: A licensed architect (registered in North Dakota 5 years or less as of August 1, 2021) who is a member in good standing with AIA North Dakota.

Commentary: This award has a two-fold purpose. One, to help encourage AIA involvement/attendance in early career professionals and to recognize our upcoming talent in North Dakota.

Qualifications: This individual, at an early stage of his/her career, has participated in AIA North Dakota events and has shown overall exceptional leadership in design, education, service to the profession.

Commentary: These qualifications are fairly open-ended to allow for the unique service an individual can play in our profession. For example, an individual might have a strong involvement in community service and is a volunteer of many non-profit organizations and is an active participant at AIA North Dakota events.

Submission Requirements: To submit nomination, nominator must be an AIA North Dakota Member who has been in good standing for at least 2 consecutive years immediately prior to this year. To be considered, the original nomination email must have 2 attachments: 1) a one-page narrative (maximum) as a Microsoft Word document with 1-inch margins on all sides, written in a font no smaller than 11 pt. type and, 2) one "head and shoulders" professional photo in JPG format.

Narrative: Please give a brief statement why you feel this individual deserves this award. List any professional or personal involvement with AIA North Dakota, the profession, and the community that would help in the selection process. Original date of North Dakota registration and the license number of the nominee must be included in the nomination.

2021 Intern of the Year Award Nomination

Eligibility: An intern who is a member in good standing as an Associate of AIA North Dakota and enrolled in the Intern Development Program (AXP). Must be a graduate--no student interns.

Commentary: This award has a two-fold purpose. First, to help encourage AIA involvement/attendance in younger professionals and second, to recognize our upcoming talent in North Dakota.

Qualifications: This individual, at the beginning of his/her career, has participated in AIA North Dakota events and has shown overall exceptional leadership in design, education, service to the profession.

Commentary: These qualifications are fairly open-ended to allow for the unique service an individual can play in our profession. For example, an individual might have a strong involvement in community service and is a volunteer of many non-profit organizations and is an active attendee at AIA North Dakota events.

Submission Requirements: To submit nomination, nominator must be an AIA North Dakota Member who has been in good standing for at least 2 consecutive years immediately prior to this year. To be considered, the original nomination email must have 2 attachments: 1) a one-page narrative (maximum) as a Microsoft Word document with 1-inch margins on all sides, written in a font no smaller than 11 pt. type and, 2) one "head and shoulders" professional photo in JPG format.

Narrative: Provide a brief statement why this individual deserves this award. List any professional or personal involvement with AIA North Dakota, the profession, and the community that would help in the selection process.
